South-Carolina GAZETTE.

THE

From THURSDAY July 11th, to THURSDAY July 18th, 1754.

LONDON, February 23.

THE following extract of a letter from Berne in Switzerland, dated Jan. 15, seems to be the truest account that has been publiſhed of the ſituation of affairs in the Eaſt Indies.

"Letters from fort St. David on the Coromandel coaſt, dated in February, adviſe, that the face of affairs is greatly altered ſince the ſevere check the French received before Trichenapalay. The king of Maiſſour, who marched to the aſſiſtance of the Engliſh nabob, and obliged the French to raiſe the ſiege of that place, is become the enemy of that nabob, under pretence that he did not keep his word with him; and actually keeps the city of Trichenapalay block'd up. Morarо, one of the chiefs of the Marattes, who was formerly our friend, has alſo gone over to the French, and joined their army, at preſent at a ſmall diſtance from ours, which is intrenched at Tirivardy, where the nabob is in perſon. We wait for the French and they will find it no eaſy matter to attack us: But in the mean time the Marattes lay waſte the neighbourhood of our camp, ſo that we are obliged to live very frugally. The Blacks who are in the nabob's ſervice, deſert in whole parties, for want of proviſions and pay: And as the nabob draws ſcarce any thing from his province, which is almoſt wholly laid deſolate or occupied by the enemy, all the burden and expence of this war will fall on the Engliſh, who are already conſiderably in debt; and perhaps they will one day be obliged to wage war with the nabob, to obtain payment of what they have advanced. We learn by ſome of our officers who are priſoners at Pondicherry, that the French are ſoon to be joined by a new nabob, whom they have ſet up, brother-in-law to him that was beheaded. A treaty of peace ('tis added) has been concluded between the king of Golconda and another powerful nation of the Marattes, who have engaged to aſſiſt the French with 20,000 cavalry. The war is carried on here with more animoſity than ever, and will be more difficult to terminate."

London, March 23. His majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Richard Hughes, Eſq; to be commiſſioner of his royal navy at Portſmouth yard.

Extract of a letter from Languedoc, in France, dated Febr. 26th.

"We are under conſternations and lamentations inexpreſſible in regard to an order, which renews the perſecution with the utmoſt violence. There are 50 or 60,000 men in this province, who are commanded to regard neither ſex nor age, but to fire upon us with ball if they diſcover any of our meetings for divine worſhip. All paſſages for the proteſtants to go out of the kingdom are moſt carefully ſtopped; great care is taken to diſcover thoſe who were married by their miniſters, to diſſolve their marriage, and compel 'em to be married again by the romiſh clergy. They take from fathers and mothers the children that were baptized by their miniſters, and baptiſe them again in the romiſh church; in ſhort, our grievances are ſo terrible, that they can hardly be expreſſed. On the one hand, we ſee huſbands parted from their lawful wives, wives from their huſbands, and deprived of their children; on the other, the troops in perpetual motion to ſeize the unfortunate; inſomuch, than nothing hardly is heard, but grievous complaints and bitter cries. Our troubles are ſo much the more ſenſible, as that ſince the general perſecution we have had a relaxation for theſe 5 or 6 years. In that interval there were ſeveral thouſand marriages bleſſed by our miniſters, and as many thouſand chriſtenings adminiſtered by them; and that which ſets a fulneſs to our deſolation is, that the heads of thoſe holy men are ſet at a great price, to make them ſuffer martyrdom as Great rewards are promiſed to thoſe who will deliver them up, dead or alive. It is to be hoped that the Jeſuits, prieſts, and friars, which are ſo numerous in London, under ſeveral kinds of diſguiſe, will not be ſo impudent to deny that there is a perſecution of the proteſtants in this kingdom. The pretence of this ſevere uſage of the proteſtants here is, as I have been informed, that we have ſent deputies to England and Holland, to deſire aſſiſtance, which not only is notoriouſly falſe, but moreover void of ſenſe, and of any likelihood."

The Princeſs Duncoure, Michell, a French ſhip, bound from Havre-de-Grace for Africa, is put into Plymouth, and has a letter of marque from the government of France. As the Engliſh inſiſt that the French have no right to trade on the Gold Coaſt in Africa, and have ſeveral times repulſed them, it is thought that this ſhip is going with a commiſſion to repel force by force.

April 6. The Hamburghers are fitting out 15 veſſels for the Whale fiſhery next ſeaſon; Altena, two; Bremen, two; and Embden, one.

LONDON.

LONDON, April 6.

ACCORDING to ſome private advices from Berlin, his Pruſſian majeſty lately ordered all the country people of the dutchy of Sileſia to the towns; where the ſtouteſt fellows were pick'd out, in order to form ſome new regiments.

Two men of war are fitting out for Nova-Scotia, where they are to be ſtationed.

His majeſty's ſhips Kent, Saliſbury, Bridgewater, and King's-Fiſher, ſail'd from Kinſale for the Eaſt-Indies the 24th ult.

April 9. It is thought Italy will be the theatre of great events this ſummer.

April 11. By the freſheſt advices from the Eaſt-Indies, it appears, that the French had actually 10 ſhips of the line of battle, and 5 frigates, in thoſe parts, and ſhortly expected ſeveral more from Europe.

April 13. Letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that the court of Denmark has renewed its ſubſidy treaty with France.

The forces at Nova-Scotia, and ſome other of our plantations, are ordered to be reinforced; for which purpoſe recruits will ſhortly be ſhipp'd.

April 16. Letters from Leghorn by yeſterday's mail adviſe, that they in a little time expect a numerous garriſon, and a ſquadron of 8 Engliſh men of war.

In the Amſterdam Gazette we find the following intelligence, dated London, April 5th.

'The duke de Mirepoix has preſented a memorial to the ſecretary of ſtate, concerning the affairs of the French and Engliſh Eaſt-India companies. The French commiſſaries have confer'd ſeveral times on the ſame ſubject with the deputies of our company; and at one of thoſe conferences the former propoſed an exchange of certain territories in the province of Arcot, which the Engliſh acquired in the year 1752, againſt ſome other diſtricts poſſeſſed by the French. But the Engliſh reject this propoſal as incompatible with their intereſt; they judge thoſe diſtricts much inferior in value to the territories demanded in exchange for them, as thoſe territories yield 'em at leaſt 50,000 l. ſterling a year, by the profit on the goods they draw from them and ſell in Europe. The Engliſh company alſo make propoſals which the French do not think acceptable, ſo that no one can tell when the negotiation may be terminated.

April 18. Letters from Germany of good credit, aſſure us, that the archduke Joſeph will be elected king of the Romans before the month of December, whether his imperial majeſty croſſes the ſea or not.

Tueſday laſt his majeſty's ſhip Mermaid fell down to Long-Reach, there to take in her guns and powder, in order to proceed to her ſtation at South-Carolina.

Spain, it is imagin'd, is on the point of exhibiting the forces which ſhe has ſo induſtriouſly raiſed, upon a theatre that has often been the ſcene of havock and confuſion.

Mr. Keene is indefatigable in ſupplicating the benefits of peace and friendſhip to the Spaniſh miniſtry, and has lately made ſome ſtrong remonſtrances on certain military movements.

April 23. The Utrecht Gazette gives us the following intelligence, dated London, April 12.

'It is confirmed, that the convention on the tapis between the Engliſh and French Eaſt-India companies is very far advanced, and that there is room to expect it will ſoon be concluded. It is certain that both parties are agreed about the principal articles of the neutrality to be hereafter obſerved in the quarrels between the nabobs, or Indian princes. The courier that the duke de Mirepoix diſpatched to Verſailles three weeks ago on this occaſion, is come back; and this day his excellency ſends away another courier, and 'tis reckoned he will not return without a deciſive anſwer.'

April 25. The camp in the dominions of Heſſe, the ſudden armament in Piedmont, the military and naval preparations in the South of France, the motions in Catalonia and Valentia, and the withdrawing from ſome courts of certain miniſters, are political phenomena, that, for the preſent, do not ſeem to be clearly comprehended even by ſtateſmen of the firſt order, who deſired it ſome time for intelligence.

On ſaturday laſt his majeſty's ſhip Dolphin ran aground in Half way tree reach, by the violence of the wind, and ſtuck; but happily got off that tide.

May 11. We hear that two companies are to be ſent from the royal regiment of artillery at Woolwich, next month, one for Newfoundland, and the other for Nova Scotia.

We hear the Britiſh ſquadron will divide in a certain latitude, by reaſon of which is to maintain the dignity of the French flag in the Mediterranean and Levant, and the other to ſail for Cape Breton, where there are already 6 ſhips of the line.

'Tis ſaid the French have not ratified the agreement with our Eaſt-India company, but have ſent it back, requiring further conditions; this greatly ſhews an intention of delay, and that they expect better terms upon the ſucceſs of their 2000 regular forces which paſſed the Cape in November laſt, and alſo the conſiderable ſupply of men and ammunition which they this year ſhipp'd off from France for Eaſt-India. The late news of our ſucceſs in a ſkirmiſh with the French and Indians, did conſiderably raiſe the ſtock, which has ſince had a much greater fall, and double loſs muſt, for trade carried on by fighting, can bring but little profit to the merchant.

Plymouth, May 7. This day ſail'd his majeſty's ſhips Tyger and Cumberland, for the Eaſt-Indies.

Portſmouth, May 9. This morning ſail'd the Marquis of Granby, Captain men of war for Gibraltar, having on board general Pulteney's regiment.

CHARLES-TOWN, July 18.

Laſt Friday Morning arrived in Town, the Rev. Mr. George Whitefield. He preach'd twice on that and the two ſucceeding Days, (the laſt Sermon to a very crowded Audience), and on Monday embark'd in the Dolphin, Capt. Wright, which ſail'd for New-York the ſame Day.

By Capt. Wyche in 8 Days from Providence, we learn, that the Jamaica Man of War, Capt. Dubois, was returned from Virginia; and had ſail'd again, with His Excellency Governor Wanton on board (in a very ill State of Health) for Philadelphia: That a French Veſſel, that had ſaden with Logum Wood among the Bahama's, was lately loſt near one of thoſe Iſlands: And that a ſevere Drought continued.

The Account in our laſt of the Long Prince-George Capt being taken by the French was premature. The Captain (Roſs) had been to trade at a Place call'd Port Dublin, and was trading peaceably with the People, by the Natives, but made his Eſcape; and his Sloop was ſafe in Gambia River, when the laſt Veſſel came away. Capt. Roſs writes, that a Sloop from London, one Frankland Maſter, had been taken at Port Dublin, and plundered of her Cargo, Sails and Rigging and the Captain, with the Crew carried off by the Natives; but that the Veſſel was ſo taken by a London Snow paſſing that Way.

The Schooner Two Friends, of New England, John Fuges Maſter, bolted from this Port for London, foundered in her Paſſage; but the Captain and Crew ſaved themſelves in their Boat, and met with a Veſſel at Sea that took 'em up.

Laſt Saturday put in here (to water) the Sloop Two Brothers, of and from New-York bound for Jamaica, John Dunſcomb Maſter.

Laſt Tueſday arrived, after a long Paſſage, the Ship Eaſt-India Packet (the Property of Mr. Benjamin Dillwyn of this Place), who was a very pious Chriſtian, a moſt affectionate Wife, a tender Mother to the other-wiſe Motherleſs, a ſincere Friend, and all that could render her reſpected.

Yeſterday arrived in Town, from Virginia, the famous Mr. THOMAS BELL, in order to procure Subſcriptions for publiſhing the MEMOIRS of his Life to the World. How this extraordinary Man (whoſe former Chequer'd and romantic Life, has made a great Noiſe in every American Colony) has lived ſince his laſt Appearance in this Province, our Readers, doubtleſs, will be glad to know; and by reading the following Extract of a Paragraph firſt publiſhed in the Virginia Gazette, then in other Northern Papers, they may be informed, viz. "That he had made his public Appearance in the City of Williamſburg in Virginia, in July laſt Year, after having reſided in Hanover County in that Colony ſome Years, in the private Station of a School maſter, and, during that Time, behaved himſelf with Juſtice, Sobriety, and good Manners; of which he produced a Certificate ſigned by the principal Gentlemen of that County: And that he hoped, by this his Behaviour, and his future Conduct, to wipe off the Odium that his former Manner of Life had fixed on him, and thereby become an uſeful Member of Society." Soon after this, we find in another Virginia Gazette, the following Addreſs

"To the PUBLIC.

"AS I have for ſome Years paſt been fully convinced of the pernicious Conſequences of an unſettled and rambling Life, and of giving the Reins to exorbitant Paſſions, and unlawful Deſires, which have been too predominant with me; I am now determined to ſpend the Remainder of my Days in a cloſe Application to ſome reputable Buſineſs, wherein I may render myſelf an uſeful Member of Society, and acquire a Subſiſtence ſuitable to my Genius and Education. And, as I am at a Loſs how to lay a Foundation for my future Livelihood, I humbly propoſe to lay before the Public, a faithful Narrative of my Travels, and Adventures, for upwards of Twenty Years paſt; which I would publiſh, by the Subſcription of ſuch Gentlemen as will be pleaſed generouſly to favour the Undertaking: which I have been encouraged to hope a great many will do: By this Method I may be enabled to riſe a moderate Sum, in order to ſettle in a creditable Way of living, and convince Mankind of the Sincerity of my Intentions wholly to reform whatever has been amiſs in my former Conduct. And as I propoſe this Advantage to myſelf, "ſo I am hopeful, the Relation of many Tranſactions "of my Life will be, not only an agreeable Amuſe"ment, but alſo, in ſome Degree, uſeful to others, "as therein the World may ſee by what unjuſtifiable "Steps I often proceeded, and learn thereby to avoid "thoſe Snares and Temptations, by which I have "been entangled and overcome; and which may "prove equally hurtful to others, who are ſo unwiſe "as to follow the like extravagant Courſes.

"THOMAS BELL."

If Mr. Bell is genuine in his Relations (as we are fond to believe he will be), and does not omit all material Parts, his Enterprizes and Adventures (being of a very ſingular Nature) and the various tragical and comical Turns of his Fortune, may perhaps vie with any Hiſtory of the kind ever yet made public; and, as it promiſes us a Species of Information and Amuſement the moſt entertaining, doubtleſs may meet ſome Share of the public Attention and Encouragement, eſpecially as he now makes his public Appearance amongſt us under his proper Name.
